

About SCOPE Instructors:

SCOPE continues to seek consultants who are passionate about their disciplines-because we know such people are an inspiration

JOHN ANDRUSKIEWICZ – johna8@optonline.net – began his teaching career at Sachem CSD in 2001, and move to Three Village CSD in 2008 to become the Social Studies Chairperson at Murphy JHS. He received his undergraduate degree from St. Joseph's College and his Master's Degree and Administrative Certification from SUNY Stony Brook.

LISA ARCE – mrsarcessteacher@aol.com – has been a secondary educator since 1990, and has been a professional developer and consultant since 1996. She has presented at conferences on the district and state level, and currently writes for Junior Scholastic magazines teacher edition. Lisa currently is employed in Middle Country School District on the Middle School level.

PAUL BECKER – professorbecker@yahoo.com – teaches Social Studies at Great Neck Public Schools and Communications courses at Walden University. Previously, he practiced law in private practice as a civil litigator as well as for the government prosecuting criminals. He has received federal and state grants for creating curriculum and training teachers. He earned his B.A. and J.D. from the University of Virginia and Masters Degree in Education from Columbia University.

CARRIE BENDER – cbender@uniondaleschools.org – an elementary school teacher in the Uniondale School District. She holds two masters in Remedial Reading and in general Education and for the last six years has been teaching remedial reading. She has served on the Board of the Nassau Reading Council, has tutored at Hofstra University has recently completed the Summer Reading Institute at Columbia University.

JOSEPH BIENZ – JB26SCOPE@optonline.net - teaches Social Studies at John F. Kennedy Middle School in the Comsewogue School District. He earned a B.A. and a M.A. from Dowling College. He also earned an Advanced Graduate Degree in Educational Administration through Stony Brook University. Mr. Bienz has a strong background in History and Education.

DIANE CIRINO – dc56scope@gmail.com – teaches ESL in the Longwood CSD and at Suffolk County Community College. She holds a BA and MA in Linguistics/TESOL from Stony Brook University. Diane has been awarded a Citigroup Success Fund Grant on supporting ELLs with literacy. She also has had learning activities published in the Mailbox Magazine.

CAROL COLOE – ccoloe@yahoo.com – has been teaching Business at Smithtown High School since 1996. Previously, she taught at Levittown Memorial High School and Nassau Community College. She earned her BS degree from Hofstra University and MBA from NYIT.

MONICA CONSALVO – daisymac@optonline.net - teaches Special Education on the Middle School level for Port Jefferson S.D. She has many years of experience as a teacher on both the Middle and H. S. levels, ranging from teaching Economics, Inclusion, Social Studies and Special Education Inclusion support classes. Monica has won a national award for incorporating US Census Data into the curriculum. She has also wrote curriculum for Project View affiliated with Eastern Suffolk BOCES on integrating video-conferencing into an ELA unit of study. Monica also won $2500 from Best Buy for a grant on integrating technology in the classroom.

KATE CORKERY – ktcorkery@gmail.com – is a retired administrator from the Brentwood School District. Prior to administration she was an elementary teacher, English teacher, reading consultant, and staff developer. A literacy specialist, she has presented on the local, state and national level. Kate has an in-depth knowledge of best practices and strategies for success in reading and writing.

WILLIAM COURT – williamcourt@gmail.com – holds a BS from Cornell University, where he studied Economics and Psychology. He currently works at a large investment bank, where he works in compensation and data systems.

BOB DECOSTANZO – bobdecostanzo@yahoo.com – taught science for thirteen years in the Brentwood Public Schools, and was a guidance counselor for twenty three years in the Sachem Public Schools. He has a Bachelor of Engineering from SUNY Stony Brook, a Masters of Liberal Studies from Stony Brook, and a Masters of Science in School Counseling from LIU C.W. Post.

HOPE DE NICOLA-RESTA – teachem99@aol.com – is currently a 2nd grade teacher in the Jackson Avenue School in Mineola. She has taught pre-k for 3 years and 2nd grade for 5 years.

CHERIE DIAMOND – cdiamond@smithtown.k12.ny.us – is a graduate of SUNY Geneseo and received her Masters in Health Education from Adelphi University. Cherie has taught for 10 years, and presently teaches health at Smithtown High School. She brings a wide range of experiences to the field of health including past work with pregnant and parenting teens, HIV testing and counseling, suicide/crisis intervention, and rape and domestic violence education. She has coordinated school wide health awareness days, World AIDS Day events and has trained professionals in a variety of health-related topics. She currently serves on the Suffolk County School Health Initiative Advisory Board.

JOHN DI NARO – info@horseandeagle.com - has developed programs in the many fields of art, such as, landscape design, sculpture in all media, painting, and graphics. Many of his programs are listed with Arts in Education for BOCES. Mr. DiNaro is also a consultant at Maryhaven for programs for the disabled.

DOMINIQUE DUNN – mrsdunn5@yahoo.com – has been a fifth grade teacher since 2001. She was a NYC teacher for 5 years and has just completed her 2nd year in the New Hyde Park-Garden City Park School District. She received a Master's Degree in Elementary Education. She has both extensive experience and training in using the Reader's and Writer's Workshop Model in the classroom.

DEBBI FRECHTMAN – deb5474@aol.com - has a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education and a Master's Degree in Special Education. She has taught resource room, self- contained and elementary education for the past 20 years.

KERRI GIORGIANNI – kerrigiorgianni@hotmail.com – has taught elementary school in New York and California. Socratic Seminar is a teaching technique that has dramatically changed and improved her teaching. It has allowed her to bring her students to new and deeper levels of understanding across all subject areas.

CAROL GOLDFOND – cgoldfond@gmail.com – has been an adjunct instructor in the Business/Office Technology Dept. at Queensborough Community College for the past 22 years. Carol also runs a private consulting/tutoring business in the Queens and Nassau areas for 8 years. She holds a BS in Business Education from NYIT, and an MPA in Public Administration from LIU-CW Post.

JAMI GOLDSTEIN SCHERR – goldsteinj@harborfieldscsd.org – is a physical education teacher and coach in the Harborfields CSD. She also serves as a part-time dean of students at Harborfields H.S. In addition, Jami advises both the Athletes Helping Athletes and Best Buddies programs at Harborfields H.S. She received both her Bachelors and Masters Degrees in Health and Physical Education from Hofstra University, and her Administration Degrees from CW Post.

JOHN HINTON – jhi8842748@aol.com - teaches math methods at Hofstra University. He has many years of experience as a teacher and administrator at all levels in both the United States and Canada. He is the author of several books including Math Works, Reasoning Only, Math Encounters and Seven Before Seven. Professor Hinton is a national consultant to numerous school districts.

KRISTINA HOLZWEISS – lieberrian@yahoo.com – is currently employed in her seventh year as a school library media specialist. Previously, she taught seventh-grade English for nine years. She received both a BA and an MA in English. In addition, she completed the Educational Computing Certificate from SUNY Stony Brook, and received her MLS in Library Studies from CW Post. Kristina has taught several in-service classes, and is a certified Thinkfinity trainer and Intel Master Teacher. Her presentations include the LI Language Arts Council Conference, the Western Suffolk BOCES Annual School Library System Conference, and NY Library Association. She has also been invited to present for the Suffolk School Library Media and LI School Media Association.

RICHARD HYMAN – rhyman5@verizon.net – is the Music Director of the Northport Symphony Orchestra. He directs the orchestra and choirs at Francis Lewis HS, is an adjunct lecturer for Queensborough Community College's "College Now" program, and is Music Director of the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Huntington. In 2007, he received the first-ever "Queens Music Teacher of the Year" grant of $35,000 for his school. He holds an M.A. in Music from Columbia University and an M.S. in Education from Queens College. Since 1998, he has been an annual recipient of the ASCAP Special Award for composer members.

THOMAS JEFFERY – scopeinstructor@optonline.net - has taught SCOPE Inservice courses for 14 years and was one of the first on-line instructors since its inception. Tom taught Computer Technology, Social Studies, and Math courses for 12 years, working first in the NYC Public Schools and then Sayville UFSD. He has fulfilled varying administrative roles and also taught continuing education courses.

MURRY KAHN – murrykahn@hotmail.com - conducts the West Islip Symphony Orchestra and was founding conductor of The Hampton Chamber Orchestra. A retired public school instrumental music teacher, he continues to teach part-time in public and private schools on Long Island.

HAROLD KENCH – kench@optonline.net – holds a B.S. in Technology Education from SUNY Oswego, and an M.S. in Instructional Technology from the NY Institute of Technology. He has been a technology teacher for the East Islip School District since 1998, and an Inservice Instructor for the Staff Development Center of the Islip's, Valley Stream Teacher Resource Center, and the Long Island Learning Institute for Educators.

RACHEL KENCH – RLK6@optonline.net – holds a B.A. in Broadcast Journalism from the University of Maine, and an M.S. in English Education from Long Island University. She has been a secondary English teacher in the East Islip School District since 1997.

JEFFREY KENNEY – jkenney@babylonufsd.org – has been a science teacher in the Babylon School District for the past 17 years. His teaching experience includes AP Chemistry, Regents Chemistry, Regents Physics and a number of electives as well. He has served the district as a member of the computer support staff and on the district technology committee. Jeffrey is now the Director of Science for Babylon as well.

JULIA LANG-SHAPIRO – shapiroj@sayville.k12.ny.us – is the Art Department Chairperson for the Sayville Public Schools, where she also teaches at the high school level. She is currently an Adjunct Instructor for Dowling College in the Education Department and after many years of presenting workshops at the local, state, and national levels, she now holds the position of Board of Trustees Secretary for the NYS Art Teachers Association. Julia holds a BA in Art Studio, an MS in Education and a PD in School District Administration from LIU/CW Post.

LYNDA LYONS – teach3rdLL@aol.com - is an MST Curriculum Specialist in the Plainview-Old Bethpage School District. As a teacher leader and staff developer, she has been involved in the district-wide implementation of professional development and training for teachers, conducted parent workshops, participated in many curriculum development projects and presented at numerous conferences in math, science and technology. Lynda participated in the Teachers College Reading and Writing Project and teaches math and science methods as an adjunct professor at Hofstra University.

SHANNON MALAGRECA – smalagreca@gmail.com – has been an elementary teacher for the past twelve years. She has taught kindergarten, 2nd and 6th grade Language Arts and Social Studies. She holds two Master Degrees, one in Children's Literature and the other in Administration and Supervision. Shannon has been very involved in promoting social and emotional skills in the classroom.

HEATHER MANCUSO – mancusony@aol.com – is an elementary teacher certified in Elementary Education, Special Ed and Literacy. She has been teaching in the New Hyde Park/Garden City Park School District in both inclusion and general education settings for the past 4 years. Prior to that, she taught special ed in the East Rockaway School District. Her teaching experience ranges from grades K – 10. She has extensive experience in creating interactive lessons to reach all learners and is skilled in utilizing learning centers, literature circles, and technology, including the SmartBoard, in the classroom.

ARNIE MASON – amasonbp@hotmail.com - is a recently retired 5th grade teacher from the South Manor School District. He was a lead teacher in the intermediate grades. Mr. Mason has taught many courses for SCOPE and teacher training centers.

JERRY MCGRATH is a retired elementary school teacher and a U.S. Coast Guard licensed boat captain. A lifelong, avid fisherman, Jerry has run boats, including his own charterboat, out of Montauk and other ports. In 1994 he was bestowed a "Teacher of the Year" award. Jerry has given numerous instructional talks to many L.I. groups including: libraries, colleges, and clubs. He has co-produced an instructional videotape titled: "Sportfishing On Long Island" and has presented the popular "Fish N Kids" program at public schools throughout L.I. Additional information may be obtained on the website: www.sportfishingadventures.net.

ROBERT MCGRATH – rtmanddgm@aol.com – is an educator and environmental activist who has been involved for over 25 years in studying and preserving the environment. He has conducted environmental programs in Iceland, Newfoundland, British Columbia, and Alaska. A co-founder of the Long Island Pine Barrens Society, Robert is now the K-12 Chairperson for Science and Technology Education in the Northport/East Northport School District.

JANICE MCLACHLAN – greeneggsandjan@aol.com - is an Art Teacher at the East Quogue Elementary School for the past 23 years. She has a Bachelors of Science in Art Education from Long Island University, Southampton Campus, and a Master of Arts specializing in Art education from Stony Brook University. It has been her life's work teaching children and teachers how to integrate Art into successful learning experiences.

CAROL MCNALLY – mcnally.carol@yahoo.com – is dually mastered in social work (LMSW), and Public Affairs from SUNY Stony Brook. She is the executive director of the Center for Restorative Practices at Touro Law Center and former Director of Public Relations for the Suffolk County Probation Department. She is a certified trainer in the Myers Briggs (Personality) Type (MBTI) indicator for adults and the MMTC indicator for children. She recently trained with the authors of the new STEP 3 MBTI, the first of 12 people in the world to do so.

MARIAN MOLDAN, LCSW-R – lily97@optonline.net – is a clinical social worker in private practice in both Miller Place and Plainview. She has a Special Education Degree, as well as, a Masters Degree in Clinical Social Work. She authored "Selective Mutism & Self-Regulation" (2005) Clinical Social Work Journal and has spoken at international conferences on this topic.

ANDREW PASKAL – apaskal@juno.com - is an elementary education teacher in the Plainview-Old Bethpage CSD. He has a Bachelors Degree in Elementary Education, a Masters Degree in Computers in Education, and a NYS Certificate in Reading. For the past three years he has taught a third grade inclusion class.

DR. PETER A. PECE-doctorpece@optonline.net - an educator since 1975, Peter received his doctorate in the field of Neuromusicology where he examined the issues involved in how the brain processes music, memory and language, and what the effects of brain trauma has upon these processes. He has lectured in Neuromusicology and the Mozart Effect in districts on L.I. and spoke at the New England Symposium for Music Education. He has performed at Lincoln Center as well as having arranged and performed musical revues for former President Bush and former Prime Minister, Margaret Thatcher. Peter has also been the musical director of Gateway Playhouses Children's Theatre since 1992, and is an adjunct professor in the School of Professional Development at Stony Brook University.

CHRIS PITKIN – cpitkin@optonline.net – is an Australian who spent many years as a General Manager in Local Government. He has traveled extensively throughout Australia, (especially the Outback) and has a wide knowledge of Australian flora, fauna, and Aboriginal Culture, particularly of Dot painting and the Didgeridoo, the world's oldest wind instrument. He now lives on Long Island, where he has developed and presented BOCES-accredited, school learning programs about Australia and its Aboriginal culture, history, art and music.

SHARON REBECCHI – srebecchi9@gmail.com – is an elementary art teacher certified in Art Education K – 12, Elementary Education, and Special Education 1 – 9. She has been teaching in the New Hyde Park/Garden City Park SD as an Elementary Art Teacher for the past 6 years. Prior to that, she taught special education in the Valley Stream CHSD.

ERIC REISERT – ereisert@babylonufsd.org – is a Math Teacher at Babylon HS for 15 years. He has been training K-12 staff at Babylon HS for over 2 years and has been involved with the installation and design of SmartBoard Classroom. Eric has presented the SmartBoard at Western Suffolk BOCES and SCOPE's Technology Conferences. He received his BA and MS in Math from Stony Brook University.

JANET ROSE – jrscope@optonline.net - is a Special Ed Teacher for the Plainview-Old Bethpage CSD. Her previous positions include: running a Sheltered Workshop and teaching autistic children and adults. She has a BS in Elementary Ed and a MS Degree in Special Ed. Seven out of her fifteen years with the P.O.B. CSD have been in a Collaborative/Inclusion Classroom.

ROBYN ROSE – Rrose8283@optonline.net – is a Licensed Social Worker who counsels children and their families at Family and Children's in Mineola. In addition to her MSW in Clinical Social Work, she holds a Master in Forensic Psychology. Other clinical experience has been in an elementary school setting working with a diverse population.

JENNIFER SAGGINARIO – teach413@optonline.net – is an elementary teacher certified in both Elementary and Special Education. She has been teaching in the West Babylon SD in both inclusion and general education settings. Jennifer has had experience working with students with autism through the Developmental Disabilities Institute. She is also an active member in the autism community.

MARIA SANT'ANGELO – santang1@optonline.net - is an experienced educator. For over 18 years she developed, implemented and evaluated educational programs for adults while employed at Cornell Cooperative Extension of Nassau County. She has taught at the college level, and is presently a Family and Consumer Science teacher at Mineola Middle School. She holds a B.S. in Home Economics from SUNY Oneonta, and a MBA from Adelphi University.

DOROTHY SAVITCH – lewsavitch@verizon.net - is Music Director of the Sound Symphony Orchestra and the Brooklyn Conservatory Community Orchestra. Previously, she directed the Gotham Chamber Orchestra, one of New York's outstanding professional chamber ensembles.

KAREN SCHARF – kscharf455@gmail.com – is a retired administrator and elementary teacher from the Brentwood S.D. She has been a staff developer who worked with district teachers in workshops, classroom demonstrations and teacher center courses. Karen has presented on the local, state and national level and has an in-depth knowledge of curriculum and instruction.

ERIC SHAPIRO – eric_shapiro@manhasset.k12.ny.us – is a middle level educator for the Manhasset Public Schools. He has presented workshops of best practice for middle level instruction at the local, state, and national levels. Mr. Shapiro has a B.A. in English with a minor in education from Hofstra University, an M.S. in Reading/Special Education from Hofstra University, and a P.D. in School District Administration from LIU/C.W. Post.

STEVEN SILIPO – ssilipo@babylonufsd.org – has been a science teacher in the Babylon SD for 11 years. He is currently teaching physics, but has taught chemistry and middle school science as well. Mr. Silipo has provided district in-service workshops on integrating technology into the classroom and is a computer technician for the district. He can be found in Who's Who Among America's Teachers and was fortunate to be able to experience "weightlessness" through the Northrop Grumman Weightless Flights of Discovery Program. Mr. Silipo has received a Bachelors Degree in Mathematics and Science and a Masters in Education from Dowling College.

PHYLLIS M. SIMON - allseekers@aol.com - is a School Library Media Specialist in Bay Shore. She completed the Scope Computer Certificate Program, the Educational Computing Certificate in the SUNY Stony Brook School of Professional Development, and has participated as a presenter at the International Reading Association Conference. Mrs. Simon has provided district inservice workshops on educational technology, and is committed to integrating technology as a curriculum and literacy resource and tool in the Media Center and classroom.

MICHAEL SIMS – mikesimsduke1@yahoo.com – is a teacher and coach in the Harborfields School District. Michael also serves as the coordinator for a student-athlete intervention committee, is a presenter for Parent University Workshops, and is a district instructor for the New Teacher Mentor Program which provides professional development to new educators.

FRAN SOLTAN – scope731@yahoo.com - teaches Special Education in Wyandanch. She is an active member in the creation of the District Wide Technology Plan, the District Wide Professional Development Committee, and is currently on the District Curriculum Committee.

KEVIN STIEGELMAIER – kevinsteg1@gmail.com – has taught science in the Three Village School District for 12 years. He has also taught in numerous environmental education programs. An avid outdoorsman and experienced paddler, he recently published Canoeing and Kayaking New York, a guidebook to the state's rivers.

JANET TEMPEL – jtempel@optonline.net – is a NYS Certified teacher with a Master's Degree in Education and Museum Management earned at NYC's Bank Street College. She is a veteran of the classroom as well as having 25 years experience as a Museum Director. Having served as a long time member and officer on the Board of the LI Museum Association (LIMA), she has great familiarity with LI museums, historic sites, aquaria, and other informal educational institutions. In retirement she operates a museum consulting service and works towards making a connection between schools and museums for cooperative programming.

TRACY TOTH – tracy764@gmail.com – teaches computers and business education at Sayville Middle School. She is the technology teacher trainer for the Middle School and an Adult Education instructor. She holds MOS certifications in Word, Excel, and PowerPoint.

CINDY VALENTINE – forcharactered@aol.com - taught in the classroom for five years, specializing in character education, reading and writing. She started and implemented a one-year pilot yoga program in the Syosset School District. She is also a certified children's yoga instructor from some of the foremost and highly recognized Children's Yoga Programs and actively teaches Character Education through basic principles of Yoga. Cindy uses a multidisciplinary approach to teaching and incorporates the multiple intelligences into all facets of learning. She continues to study, research, and write curriculum based on principles of Character Education and Yoga.

BRIANNA VISCO – bvisco@optonline.net – is a graduate of SUNY Oneonta with a B.S. in Dietetics. She has interned at Cornell Cooperative Extension where she worked with children to educate them about proper nutrition to prevent childhood obesity. Brianna also interned with Head Start, where she worked with children and their parents of Oneonta in an effort to ensure that low income residents were given the proper tools to achieve a healthy lifestyle. Brianna recently completed her dietetic internship at Stony Brook Medical Center and passed her Registration Exam. She currently works as a clinical rehabilitation dietitian.

CHRISTOPHER VISCO – cvisco@optonline.net - has been teaching Earth Science and AP Environmental Science for 25 years. He was the 2006 Suffolk County Science Teacher of the Year and a 2007 Finalist for New York State Teacher of the Year. He is the creator of the award winning New York Earth Science Teacher website (<http://ourworld.compuserve.com/homepages/cvisco>). He has traveled extensively around the U.S. collecting rocks, minerals and fossils, and found the first and only dinosaur fossil from Long Island.

ROBERT VULPIS – vulpisbobv@aol.com - retired teacher from Levittown Public Schools. He has served as a social studies instructor, chairperson and summer school secondary coordinator during his three-decade plus career. Additionally, he has worked for the Middle Country CSD as part of the Adult Continuing Educ.Depart. as an instructor and program director for EPE. He most recently serves as an international guest lecturer on cruise ship lines presenting seminars in the area of "wellness workshops" & is on staff at the Dowling College Institute.

RON WEBER – webguyron@hotmail.com – is a teacher with over 30 years of classroom experience. He taught his first computer course for SCOPE in the fall of 1985. He is a published author of educational software packages, an inservice instructor for SCOPE and an Adjunct Professor of Education at Dowling. In June 2004, he was recognize by ISTE with a SigTel award for excellence in online learning, and in November 2004 was recognized by NYSCATE as The Lee Bryant Outstanding New York State Technologist.

RICHARD WEEKS – weeksringo419@aol.com - has taught German for sixteen years at Lindenhurst High School and History at Suffolk County Community College for seventeen years. He has a Bachelors and a Masters degree from Stony Brook University as well as a Masters from C.W. Post.

RICHARD WERNER – rcw11795@optonline.net – was the Elementary Technology Teacher Trainer for the Longwood School District from 1998-2003. More recently, he worked as a Director of Educational Services for an Internet resource company and is currently the Technology Coordinator at East Quogue. Mr. Werner is a member of Who's Who of American Teachers as well as the New York State Academy of Teaching and Learning. Richard is a certified Webmaster whose web creations have won numerous national and international awards.

CECILE WREN – mindandheart@optonline.net – has been involved in the field of education for over 35 years as a teacher, technology coordinator, Dean of Students, and Principal. She has presented at local, state, and national conferences and provides school districts with specialized training programs for teachers and administrators. Cecile's passion is educating the heart as well as the mind.