THE TEACHING ASSISTANT’S ROLE IN UNDERSTANDING & RESPONDING TO BULLYING,
RELATIONAL AGGRESSION & CYBER BULLYING

The goal of the “Dignity for All Students Act” is to provide every student with a safe school environment. Giving Teaching Assistants the information and tools they need to understand all types of bullying, why it happens, who is targeted and MOST IMPORTANTLY what to do when confronted with a bullying situation is critical to the success of preventing harassment and discrimination. The role of the TA is especially important since many work directly with special needs populations who are at a greater risk of being victimized. Strategies for TAs to use when these special students are targeted by bullies will be discussed as well as prevention techniques for all.

Presenters include:

Cindy Pierce Lee - Associate Director, SCOPE Education Services and Director of SCOPE’S Speakers’ Bureau. She has presented workshops to thousands of students, parents & school staff on a variety of topics associated with violence prevention.

Dr. Barry McNamara - Professor of Special Education at Dowling College and the author of Keys to Dealing with Bullies and Learning Disabilities: Bridging the Gap Between Research & Classroom Practice.
